Producer, TV Director

EXPERIENCE

Shock Radio - Deputy Station Manager, Head of News & Presenter

June 2022 - May 2023

I was elected to the role by the membership of Shock Radio for the 2022/23 academic year. Within my role, I look after the day-to-day running of the station along with other committee members. I also manage the station's news team by keeping across the news & current affairs, advising the team on the stories of the day as well as assigning readers and reporters to their roles. I also present on the station and more recently picked up the Gold Award for 'Best Drivetime' on the station - judged by lecturers at the University of Salford.

Quays TV - Producer, Director, Vision Mixer, Gallery Operator

December 2021 - Current

I have partaken in a number of different production and gallery roles for Quays TV in the last 18 months. Having directed & vision mixed a number of the station's programmes, I have worked also on the sound & graphics desk. I have also worked with commercial clients in the gallery during their media training.

Roch Valley Radio - Head of News & Sport

August 2018 - Current

I coordinate the station's news & sports output on all platforms, this includes arranging resources for the matches we have coming up and making sure we have the correct equipment in the correct place when needed. During this role, I have also commentated on a wide range of sports including football, cricket & tennis.

I have a long-held ambition to establish a career in Journalism & Broadcasting. Over recent years, I have gained a solid foundation of understanding and a platform from which I hope to grow and flourish as an undergraduate student and professional in this industry.
